SUMMARY:

On November 16, 2008, at approximately 0412 hours, officers responded to the call of an armed robbery at Tamarack Beach Resort, 3200 Carlsbad Blvd. Upon arrival the officers contacted the victim, a female desk clerk. She told the officers the suspect came into the backroom where she was. She heard a noise looked in the direction of the noise came from and was punched by the suspect in the face. The victim described the suspect as a white male adult; approximately 5'8", unknown weight, and he was wearing a dark colored tee-shirt and shorts. After the suspect struck the victim he told her to lie on the floor and asked where the money was. She told the suspect the money was in the cash drawer on the counter. The suspect walked over to the counter and removed the money from the cash drawer. After the suspect took the cash he asked the victim where her car keys were and the location of her car. The victim told the suspect where her car keys were and the location and description of her car. The suspect exited the business and left the area in an unknown direction in the victim's vehicle. The victim's vehicle is a maroon 1998 Saturn SLR2, bearing California license 4BPV789. It is unknown what the cash loss is at this time. Officers checked the area for the suspect with negative results.
